Wherever you are on your financial journey, we're here to give you advice you can depend on.

Our services are comprehensive, which means your adviser can offer you professional advice across all the stages of your financial life.

You can choose to receive some or all of these services at any time. This document explains what you can expect from these services and the associated fees.

On some occasions we may refer you to a third party for services or advice. When this is the case, we may be paid a fee or commission, and these will be confirmed to you at the time of referral.

Mortgages

We offer a mortgage advice service on both residential and buy to let mortgages. As part of this service, we will make a recommendation once we have assessed your needs.

We recommend products from a range of lenders that is representative of the whole of market, however we do not consider mortgage products that you can only obtain by going directly to a lender

We do not provide advice on second charge mortgages, commercial mortgages, or bridging loans. If you need advice on these types of loan, we can refer you to a specialist broker.

We do not charge fees for our mortgage advice service. Instead, we will be paid a commission from the lender.

Full details of any commission we receive will be set out in the mortgage illustration document (issued by the lender) before you take out a mortgage. This illustration will also tell you about any other fees relating to the mortgage.

Complex lending

We reserve the right to charge an additional fee for cases where it involves more complexity due to topics such as:

- Larger loans
- Multiple borrowers / guarantors
- Your personal situation regarding income sources, taxation, residence, and credit rating
- Property type, location, freehold or leasehold variations

In addition to the above fees, we will also receive a commission from the lender. You will receive a mortgage illustration when considering a particular mortgage, which tells you the actual amount of the fees and commission we will receive, as well as details of any other fees relating to the mortgage.

If we are unable to advise on an appropriate product for you, we may refer you to a third party (such as a specialist broker) which may pay us a fee for the introduction. In these circumstances, either we or the third party will tell you about any fees we receive for the introduction.

We may contact you from time to time to discuss your future mortgage planning needs, for example, when the initial term on your mortgage is due to end.

Insurance

Insurance is an important part of many people's financial plans, either to ensure their family is financially protected, to ensure they would have the funds to pay a loan such as a mortgage if the worst were to happen, to protect key people within a business, or to pay an inheritance tax bill.

We may refer you to Real Life Advice for insurance. They will provide their own documents confirming their terms, service, and what you can expect. We are not responsible for any advice they give you and any complaints would be covered by the firm's own complaints procedure. We will receive a share of commission for these referrals.

We offer buildings and contents insurance, landlord's buildings and contents insurance, and personal accident and sickness insurance from LV.

Full details of any commission we receive from the product provider will be set out in your illustration document issued by the product provider before you purchase an insurance policy.

You will not pay us a fee for any insurance advice we provide you with. Instead, we will be paid a commission from the product provider.

We act as an insurance intermediary for the insurance services that we offer.

We may contact you from time to time to establish whether your protection plans remain appropriate for your needs.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)

We are covered by the FSCS. In the unlikely event that we cannot meet our obligations, you may be entitled to compensation from the FSCS. This depends on your type of advice/product, and the circumstances of your claim. The FSCS covers eligible claims up to the following limits:

- Up to £85,000 per eligible person, per firm for mortgages
- 100% protection for long term insurance; 90% protection for all other kinds of insurance, including general insurance

Further information about compensation scheme arrangements including the conditions governing compensation and how to obtain compensation is available from the FSCS at www.fscs.org.uk.

Data protection and your rights

The personal information you provide will assist your financial adviser in offering you suitable advice. The personal data you provide will be used and stored in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) under UK law.

Quilter Group may process 'special category data' on the lawful basis of 'substantial public interest' or on the lawful basis of 'Explicit Consent'.

For further information on how Quilter uses your personal data and your rights, please see our Privacy Notice. A printable version can be provided on request.

If you have any enquiries relating to the personal data that Quilter may hold about you, how your personal data is processed, or how to exercise your rights you can contact our Data Team, at QFPdataguardian@quilter.com.

From time to time, both your adviser and Quilter may send you information that we feel may be relevant to you based on your current products and services. These messages are optional and you will be able to unsubscribe by clicking on the relevant link in each message.

Other important information

Our regulator

Michael Cole (FCA register number is 474154) is an appointed representative of Quilter Financial Services Ltd (FCA Register number 440703) of Senator House, 85 Queen Victoria Street, London, EC4V 4AB which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

The permitted business of Quilter Financial Services Limited is advising on and arranging pensions, investments, mortgages, life assurance and general insurance.

You can check this on the FCA's register at <https://register.fca.org.uk/s/> or by contacting the FCA on 0300 500 8082 or 0800 111 6768.

The FCA address is: 12 Endeavour Square, London, E20 1JN.

VAT

In most instances, our fees are exempt from VAT. However, if VAT is payable – for example, where a fee is charged before application – we will tell you.

The fees set out in these terms do not include VAT unless states otherwise. If VAT does apply it will be charged on top of the stated fee. The law on which services are and are not subject to VAT may change in the future.

Unregulated mortgages

Not all mortgage loans and services are regulated by the FCA. Some of the advice and services we provide may relate to loans which are either unregulated or have limited consumer protection. For example, very few buy-to-let mortgages are regulated by the FCA. If a product is not regulated by the FCA, you may not be entitled to complain to the Financial Ombudsman Service about it or to claim from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme. We will tell you if a product we recommend is not regulated.

Client money

We do not handle client money. We never handle cash and will only accept a cheque made out to us in settlement of advice and service fees. Our preferred method of payment is bank transfer.

Your duty to disclose information

The financial advice and recommendations we provide are based on your personal financial circumstances and objectives that you disclose to us. We will confirm these and the reasons for any recommendation in our advice. It is important that the information you give us is accurate and a true reflection of your current circumstances, as that will form the basis of the advice and recommendations that we give.

You must provide complete and accurate information to product providers such as insurance, mortgage or investment companies. If you don't disclose relevant information or a change of circumstances, your policy, mortgage or investment product may be invalidated - for example, an insurance claim may not be paid. We strongly recommend that you thoroughly check the information you provide before you submit it.

Addressing financial crime

We are required to comply with laws and regulations designed to prevent money laundering and other financial crime. Our responsibilities include verifying the identity and address of our clients and anyone making payments on their behalf. If asked, you must supply proof of your address and/or identity.

Identity verification checks include electronic searches of the electoral register and the use of credit reference agencies, which will result in a soft footprint on your credit file. This footprint is not visible to other financial service providers and does not affect your credit rating in any way. Your acceptance of these Terms represents your permission for us to carry out these checks.

Changes to these Terms

We may change these Terms, including our fees and commission rates, from time to time in whole or in part. We can change these Terms:

- to reflect changes in the costs or charges that we incur or expect to incur in providing our services, including changes in the rates of tax or how it is applied
 - to reflect current or future changes in law, FCA rules or market practice, or decisions of the Financial Ombudsman Service

- to meet regulatory requirements, industry guidance or best practice, or the requirements of any of the firms whose products or services we make available to you
- to allow us to introduce new systems, products or services or to reflect changes in the way we deliver our services to you
- to reflect how our services are used and ensure the costs of our services are allocated fairly
- to make these Terms easier to understand, fairer or to correct errors.

We will give you at least 30 days' notice of any change to these Terms that may be detrimental to you, unless we are required to make the change sooner.

These Terms are based on our understanding of the law and regulations when the Terms were written. If there is a change to the law or regulations, or how they are interpreted, we will not be liable for any loss that may result.

Conflicts of interest

To ensure client interests are always put first, we operate a robust conflicts of interest policy. If a potential conflict of interest arises, it will be actively managed, and we have arrangements in place to ensure good outcomes for our clients.

Language

Unless agreed by us, all communication will be completed in English. We will communicate in a manner that is convenient to you; this could include face-to-face meetings, post, e-mail and by telephone using the contact details shown on the front of these Terms.

Ownership

Quilter Financial Services Limited is part of the Quilter Group.

The law we operate under

These Terms are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. In relation to any dispute, if you live in England, you and we agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England. If you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you and we agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Scotland or Northern Ireland respectively.

All advice will be conducted in the UK. We do not have permission to give advice when either you or your adviser is located outside the UK.

Supporting your needs

All customers can potentially face difficulties. However, these difficulties can be made worse for customers with additional needs. These needs might relate to health, life events or communication issues.

Quilter offers various services for people with additional needs. You can find more information at www.quilter.com/help-and-support/supporting-customers-with-additional-needs . If you can't find what you're looking for, please get in touch and we'll do our very best to help you.
